

The National Association of Broadcasters should have no right in limiting content or competition with Satellite Radio. Satllite Radio provides a valuable quality and variety to it's subscribers. Satelite radio is a pay service much like cable TV or satellite TV. Both of which are allowed to carry local services as weather and traffic information. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.